ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bill Changes Today at Auditorium. Bill Changes Today at Auditorium.

The mid-week change of bill will bring to the Auditorium three good lively acts which, with Johnny Small and his Small Sisters, who will be held for the remainder of the week, will make up as pleasing a vaudeville bill as has been seen here in a long time. The feature comedy knockabout novelty presented by Hunnes and Lewis, well-known acrobath, will be a winner, while Frank Bertrand in his comedy novelty travesty. "That's Art," introducing burlesques on Creatore conducting Poet and Peasant, Lightning Sketch Artist, Feats of Strength, etc. Mr. Bertrand will sing that funny song "Don't go in the lions' cage tonight," with which he has made such big hit everywhere. An act of great variety and presented by wonderful acrobatic performers will be that introducing the Arizona trio of foot troducing the Arizona trio of foot equilibrists hand balancers, novelty fugglers, lightning tumbiers and contoritionists, and big shoe dancers. The motion pictures are all of good subjects, carefully selected.

BREED THEATER. "The Curse of Drink," Superb Bio graph Lesson.

The feature picture at the Breed theater last evening, entitled The Curse of Drink is probably the most talked of picture in its field, and is the subject of the highest commendation from both pulpit and press. It is by the Biograph company, and contains some of the old-time favorities, many of whom have passed from the employ of the Biograph company now, and their excellent work in this powerful temperance picture stands as a monument to their unrivalled ability. This picture has been the subject of many an eloquent aermon while on exhibition in New York city, and its tremendous moral is far-reaching in its grand results. The action is superb and masterly at all time, four of the scenes taking place at a popular theater which are most novel. Mr. E. J. Farrell, the pleasing lecturer, is the descriptive agent of this picture, and his extended engagement with the Biograph company perfectly fits him for his chosen work. His touching re-Blograph company perfectly fits him for his chosen work. His touching re-marks in the description were a pow-erful factor in the success of the pic-

The great Vitagraph subject, The Fruits of Vengeance, was again shown and the audience again marvelled at its complaieness and accuracy.

Mr. Joy sings the lutest and best in the Illustrated song line and wins much applause thereby.

And the frail unanxious flowers.

Therefore, give thy spring rensscence—
Freshened arder, dreams and mirth—
To make perfect and replenish
All the sorry fault and dearth
Of the life from whose enrichment
Thine aspiring will had birth;
Take thy part in the redemption
Of thy kind from bonds of earth.
